Report of Supt. of Schools

To the Superintending School Committee of Islesboro, and Citizens of the Town:

Herewith is my report for 1930-31.

HIGH SCHOOL

The High School has functioned very efficiently this year. We were fortunate to have Miss Samways and Mr. Jordan return, and Mr. Erskine assumed his duties very capably. All of the teachers have done good work in the class-rooms and in outside activities, while the attendance and attitude of the pupils have been equally commendable. The State Agent for High Schools spoke favorably of the school as he saw it during his visit. The evening classes conducted at that time were worthy of visitation, and it is hoped that such a program can be arranged more often.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS

As with the High School, very good work is being accomplished in the Common Schools. In the case of many individuals and of a number of groups and classes, the standard of achievement is equal to or above the accepted grade average. The teachers and school officials are endeavoring to perform their duties as efficiently as possible, and while errors of commission and of omission will appear in all human activities, on the whole Islesboro schools will bear comparison with those of similar communities. An active Parent-Teachers Association might do much to avoid misunderstanding and to bring closer together the aims of the school and the home.

ACCOUNTS

The financial situation is in general satisfactory. The accounts available for schools show an unexpended balance, and while there may be small overdrafts in separate accounts, they can be carried over as expenditures on the next fiscal period without increasing the appropriations. It is hoped that the same generous support will be given the schools as has been done in the past.

H. C. PHILBROOK.

Report of the Principal of the High School

To the Superintendent of Schools, and the School Committee of Islesboro, Maine:

I hereby submit my first annual report as Principal of the High School.

FALL TERM

School began Sept. 8, 1930 with an enrollment of 52 pupils. The enrollment by sex, class and courses follows:

Boys, 26		Girls, 26
Seniors .....	11	College Preparatory.....	23
Juniors .....	9	Commercial .....	27
Sophomores .....	22	Eng. Scientific .....	2
Freshmen .....	10		—
	—		52
	52

The principal social events were the Freshmen Reception, the Hallowe'en Party and Bazaar, the school play and the Christmas tree.

At the Freshmen Reception, paddling and other violent forms of hazing were strictly prohibited. Only parents were invited.

The Hallowe'en Party and Bazaar was well attended and a financial success.

The school play, "Pa's New Housekeeper," was well received.

School closed Dec. 12 for two weeks vacation.

WINTER TERM

The Winter term started on Dec. 29, 1930 with an enrollment of 48 pupils. Frances Grindell went to Penobscot, Ruby Studley to Randolph, Mass., Dee Bouchard to Old Town and one pupil has left school.

The following basketball games have been played thus far this winter:

Games	Place	Score
		Islesboro	Opponents
Castine H. S.	Castine	24	22
Stonington H. S.	Stonington	22	33
Crosby H. S.	Belfast	17	38
Stonington H. S.	Islesboro	25	18
Crosby H. S.	Islesboro	25	34

The games with Crosby High of Belfast and Stonington High were games in which our team played unusually well against strong opposition.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS

There were seventeen pupils not absent a single session during the fall term.

A large number of pupils have been on the Honor Roll for each six week period and a commendable number have remained on the list for the complete half year.

The Senior and Junior Classes have taken charge of assembly two mornings and have acquitted themselves very creditably.

Supervised noon time recreation has been introduced in keeping with the tendency of modern educators to make school interesting. Pupils of today, except in rare cases, do not look upon attending school as drudgery. Apparently, this has been appreciated by the pupils as evidenced by their fine spirit and the number of pupils on the Honor Roll. If school is interesting, pupils study much harder.

I have found the majority of pupils here in this high school as industrious as in the average high school. Excellent conditions for studying prevail and the great majority of the pupils are availing themselves of their opportunity. I have certainly enjoyed working with these young people.

The teachers are efficient and are conscientiously working for the best interests of the pupils.

The most outstanding event of the winter term was the evening session which was held for the benefit of the parents. Each member of the faculty taught three classes. Mr. Harrison Lyseth, State Agent for Secondary Schools was present and spoke on the "Changing Education." Mr. Lyseth stated that he was very favorably impressed with the high school.

I wish to thank the teachers, the school officials, the parents, and the friends of the school for their kind assistance.

Respectfully submitted,

MAXWELL M. ERSKINE,

Principal.

Commercial and History Departments Islesboro High School

Superintendent of Schools and School Committee:

In submitting my second annual report of the Commercial Department of Islesboro High School, I wish to briefly outline the history and requirements of the commercial world of today.

Commerce has been the means of developing our present high standard of civilization. It is the keynote of all history. Our country has progressed rapidly during the four centuries and more of its existence, and our nation comprising but 6% of the world's population, is today a commercialized land.

A constant change has been taking place in our country in industry and trade, which became noticeable during the Economic Revolution following the Civil War. Small business houses were absorbed and overshadowed by the corporation and during the years up to the present time, there has been a movement in the commercial field toward higher efficiency both in production and distribution. Old machinery has been replaced by modern equipment, transportation has become more speedy, and the modern world of today demands employees possessing a knowledge of business ethics necessary to promote a high standard of business administration. To meet these requirements, private schools of commerce were established, and finally the public high schools were equipped to offer practical business training.

The function of the Commercial Department of Islesboro High School is to give the students business training, which, coupled with character and ambition, will produce the business men and women of tomorrow.

The Commercial Rooms are well equipped, and I hope that in the near future, it will be possible to add some new office machines to the equipment. The Typewriting Department at present is furnished with five Underwood and two L. C. Smith typewriters, all of which are practically new.

Of the school enrollment of forty-eight students, twenty-seven are taking the full Commercial course. There are six other students who are taking some Commercial work in addition to their regular course of study.

I shall be very glad to have citizens of Islesboro, and especially the parents, visit the Commercial Department, and at all times I shall be glad to answer any questions relative to Commercial work.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) LLOYD A. JORDAN.

Report of Library Committee

To the Selectmen of Islesboro:

Our budget for the year has been carefully expended.

Every third year when those two insurance bills come due of over $145.00—well, it takes us the most of the next year, trying to catch up with our finances.

Our librarian puts in extra time now four months of the year, so of necessity her bill is larger than in past days. We believe you all like to see the lawn looking well, so this bill explains itself.

The annual house cleaning of the library, the daily janitor with the fuel and the raising of the flag; all these items come out of our budget, and then, books, magazines, materials for mending books, catalog cards, book labels, and the cost of sending for over due books; these bills also belong to us.

If we succeed in giving you good service at the desk, and a book shelf that is filled with timely books, we feel that we have fulfilled a part of our duties at least. We have added some valuable books on local history this year.

This spring we have many books to send to the bindery; books that are worth-while for us to keep.

We must buy a case, too, for our old maps, and possibly a second case for some rare books and papers that have been presented to us.

Also, we need an extra book case for reference books, that we may have closer co-ordination in our reference department.

GIFTS

An interesting gift, was that of an old paper given the library, by Mr. Raymond Coombs. It is the roster of Lieut. Benjamin Williams' men of arms, of Islesboro, District of Maine, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, for the year 1823.

We have had a double glass put over it, that it may be read on both sides of the paper. He also gave us some old autographs, among them, Paoli Hewes.

Another gift, was a sabre from Mr. Warren Lewis, found on Islesboro's shores many years ago.

Dr. Barker presented us with some old Godey's magazines.

Mr. George Williams gave us an old mortar or pointer, found in the cellar of the R. P. Pendleton house which was moved from the west side in 1838, by Capt. Mark Pendleton.

The Library Committee is much gratified with these articles pertaining to the town's past history.

Another gift—are the high school papers on local history, given us by the students, and which will be kept at the library to supplement Mr. Farrow's history.

A collection of shells by Mrs. Mabel Elwell and Miss Alice Pendleton, have also been given.

Other gifts—of books will be acknowledged by our librarian.

Those of you who like to reminiscence on pioneer days in Islesboro, missed something good if you failed to be present on some of those Saturday afternoons of the summer of 1930. For 1931 we plan to open the library one evening a week in addition to its present time schedule.

We would not close without a word of appreciation for our ever gracious librarian, and her co-workers in the northern part of the town.

We endeavor, in our purchasing of books, to collaborate with the schools in education, with the home in entertainment, and then with the youth in the development of his physical, mental and moral personality.

Respectfully submitted,

ALICE L. PENDLETON

Report of Librarian

To the Selectmen of Islesboro:

Again I submit a report and express appreciation for the many gifts received during the past year.

As you may see by the list of gifts especial thanks is due Mrs. Harriet Burt, Dr. Barker, Alice Stevens, Mrs. Clark, Alfred Decker, Mrs. Beatrice Lillie, Warren Hibbert, Mrs. Aurelia Pendleton, Miss Alice Pendleton, Miss Elizabeth Ladd and the Dark Harbor Library. We also thank Mrs. Inez Pendleton for pamphlets, Mrs. Barker for a collection of Florida shells, Mr. Warren Lewis for an interesting weapon found on the shores of Islesboro years ago, and the loan of Miss Alice Pendleton of a model of the "Convert."

The readers of the branch libraries at Mrs. Ethelinda Robinson's and Mrs. Geneva Collins' are invited to come to the library and select the books they wish to read.

The H. S. students are using the library for their book reports and are enjoying the bound volumes of the "Argonaut."

If anyone has any clippings of interest for our Islesboro Scrap Book, please bring them in.

Our magazines are Good Housekeeping, Ladies' Home Journal, Woman's Home Companion, World's Work, American Magazine, Popular Mechanics, National Geographic, Hygeia, Children, Cosmopolitan, American Girl, American Boy, etc.
